PICKETT METCALFE,

POOLED TOBACCO ALL SOLD.

There was great rejoicing here

The deal between the Burley

Tobacco Society and the Americans Tobacco Co. had been closed for seventy-five per cent. of the pooled tobacco. The representatives of each side came to an agreement about 4 o'clock p. m.

Wednesday, Nov. 18, and the news spread over the Burley tobacco district as fast as the wires could carry it.

The trade was for 75 per cent.

of the 1908 pool at scheduled prices and 75 per cent. of the 1907 pool at graded prices to average 17 cents per pound.

That will make about 10,000,000 lbs. of 1906 and 60,000,000 lbs.

of 1907 tobacco. The total amount will be about $12,000,000. The time for delivery is Nov. 24, 1908, to Feb. 1, 1909.

Thus ends the warfare which has been vigorously waged for three years, sometimes with bitterness and violence that threatened the lives of the growers and order. The organized growers have triumphed, but not without many a faint heart that was at first aggressively antagonistic.

Predictions were freely made by many of the more astute observers that the pool was bound to break down from the numerous resources of the Tobacco Trust and the necessities of the greater number of growers. And the success of the pool is undoubtedly a wonderful accomplishment when all things are considered.

The terms of the pool are considered. The Tobacco Society the sympathy and moral support of many good people who jumped at the united effort of the Society could have prevented the night-riding. Perhaps no worthy cause on a great scale ever succeeded without much and gross wrong-doing by individual adherents. But that fact is not a sufficient argument against a great cause.

Bath county holders have about a million pounds of 1906 and three hundred pounds of the 1907 crop in the pool. Waller Sharp, of

Have You Tried the Pocket?

For the fall and winter trade I have the largest and best stock I have ever carried. The celebrated Shield brand clothing; the Selz and other good makes of shoes; hats, overcoats, notions, furnishing goods, etc.

With more than thirty years' experience, and with one-fourth the expense of other houses in this line, I can and will sell you goods at less price than any store in this or any neighboring town. Everything as represented at

GILLON'S (in the Pocket),

THE GUNNERS.—The like of the partridge and rabbit hunters this fall was never seen before. They simply cover the country and the boom of the guns from morning till night is like warfare. Rabbits have been very plentiful, but the partridges are seldom bagged, as the few flocks that are left promptly take to the bushes when flushed.

TO SAVE TIME.—The pigeons that roost on the barge of the Court-house clock and derange the time were further depleted last Thursday morning by some of the local gunners, who began a bombardment on them at day-break and made folks think there was a premature celebration of Christmas.

MORGAN OUT ON BOND.—Harry Morgan, charged with cutting and wounding Tommy G. Daugherty, was brought back from the Mayville jail to Flemingsburg last week and admitted to bail in the sum of $500, which he gave.

His examining trial is set for Nov. 27. Daugherty is believed to appear as a witness at the trial.

BARN BURNED.—Thomas F. Razor's barn near Moore's Ferry was burned one day last week, consuming a lot of corn, hay and other feed stuff, lumber and machinery. The barn caught from a gasoline engine used in operating a corn shredder outside of but near the building.

A sprinkle of rain and the shining sun the best remedy for the drought-breaker.
